SPECIAL GUEST FOR MLK WEEKEND: FATHER GREGORY BOYLE, FOUNDER, HOMEBOY INDUSTRIES

Shabbat Morning Drasha, January 18

"The Whole Language: The Power of Extravagant Tenderness"

Father Gregory Boyle will share what he has learned in three decades working with marginalized populations at Homeboy Industries in Los Angeles, Calif.—that love is the answer, community is the context, and tenderness is the connective tissue. Tenderness reflects the foundational notion that there are no us and them, only us. Homeboy seeks to be what the world is invited to become. Kinship cannot happen without tenderness.

OUR DAILY MINYAN

IRREGULAR HEARTBEATS

For the next several weeks we'll be sharing the answers that BDJ Daily Minyan regulars provided when I asked them, "Why is Daily Minyan important to you?"

Mark Rothman: I have a couple favorite times to come to minyan. One is when I need perspective on a problem, a spiritual need, or just a question. Another is when we've made sure a mourner, sometimes from out of town, can say Kaddish, and I get to ask our guest who she or he is mourning. And then there's the time I come just to "wind the watch," to keep the minyan strong and myself in shape for those other times. Maybe this is my favorite time of all, because it leads to them all.

LETTER FROM RABBANIT ALISSA

I am thrilled and humbled to be one of the honorees this year at our annual gala! Working with Rav Yosef, Adynna, and all of you at BDJ these past 5 years has been nothing short of a dream come true. When I started at Yeshivat Maharat, we didn't have a graduating class (or an official title), so the job market was a complete unknown. And though I'm from LA, living and working in Pico Robertson seemed like a pipe dream. It took a big leap of faith for me to follow that path and for Akiva and I to move here (2.5 months after we got married). But, Baruch Hashem, those years of the unknown led to such an amazing life together! I love our community-- our commitment to Torah, mitzvot, and serving Hashem--and how we bring that commitment to life through caring for those who are often unseen. From Parsha Plug, to our Mental Health Awareness Initiatives and Vachai Bahem End of Life Care Programming, to projects like Coffee Club, Cocoa Club, and more, I have had the profound privilege of connecting with you and your children, and learning from the Torah each of you has to teach. And I have personally felt your loving embrace of our family over the years-- support for which we are forever grateful. Thank you for the incredible joy of serving you, for your unparalleled support of female Orthodox clergy, and for inspiring me and partnering with me in bringing more and more light and holiness to our community and beyond. Akiva, Ella, and I are truly blessed to call BDJ our spiritual home. We are a shul that embodies the empathy, wisdom, heart, and desire to grow that our halachic system nourishes and glorifies. This is worth celebrating! So please join me at our annual gala to do so-- and to give Hakarat Hatov to our other wonderful honorees! I could not be more proud to be a part of the BDJ family. I'll see you at the gala! ~Alissa
