With the group, Rav Yosef and Rabbanit Alissa can communicate with you in working to better build our minyan. And before you ask-- yes, we want women to join as well!! ### SPECIAL GUEST: DR. EZRA ZUCKERMAN SIVAN

Shabbat, March 9th

“The Creation of the Seven-Day Week”

Contrary to what is commonly assumed, the week is a relatively new institution (outside of the Jewish community), and its beginnings are shrouded in mystery—from both a historical standpoint (when did it start?) and an “entrepreneurial” standpoint (given the obstacles, how could its originators succeed at “launching” it?).

Shabbat Morning Drasha

“Shabbat Is Sustained By Love So Why Is It Supported with A Regime of Fear?”

Seudah Shlishit

“Learning From the ‘Shabbat Entrepreneur’: How Does Shabbat Observance Provide Proof of God?”

Ezra Zuckerman Sivan is the Deputy Dean of MIT's Sloan School of Management and the Alvin J. Siteman Professor of Strategy and Entrepreneurship. He holds a BA from Columbia University as well as a Ph.D. in sociology from the University of Chicago. He will be sharing with us some ideas from a book he is currently writing on the history, sociology, and Torah of a unique social institution: the 7-day week.

SEDER NASHIM

Shabbat, March 16th | 4:30 PM

Location TBD

“(Let’s Talk About) Pleasure”

There are countless conversations within the Orthodox Jewish community adjacent to the topic of women’s sexuality, and yet addressing sexuality and pleasure itself is considered taboo. The fact that there are numerous halachic sources about pleasure indicates that this taboo is misplaced. Let’s make space for an honest discussion on this important aspect of our lives. Is “pleasure” a part of our vocabularies? How do we negotiate our intimate needs within the hubbub of our busy lives?

Upcoming Dates:

April 6 - Labels and the Language of Identity

May 11 - Emotional Labor: Managing the Invisible To-Do List

June 1 - “Cliques” or Community?

BDJ's women-only series focuses on topics that touch us as Modern Orthodox women. All adult women are welcome. Events will be held at private homes in the

SPECIAL GUEST: JORDAN B. GORFINKEL

March 16th

“Everything I Need to Know About the Haggadah I Learned from Batman”

At the Shabbat morning drasha, former DC Comics editor Jordan B. “Gorf” Gorfinkel will give us a window into his new graphic adaptation of the Haggadah. “Gorf” will usher us into the Pesach zone by analyzing the thematic and narrative elements of the Haggadah, and discussing how he applied his experience in comics to illuminate different facets of the Torah and Haggadah. Our traditional Passover text lends itself so well to a comic book adaptation!
