WOMEN & MITZVOT

Sunday, Jan. 6 | 9:30-11:00 AM

Home of Jenny and Billie Gelb 9300 Duxbury Road

"BIRKAT HAMAZON" WITH YOETZET HALACHA ILANA GADISH
We will explore birkat hamazon, uncovering its practical and spiritual meaning to women.

A note from participant Arielle Gereboff : "These shiurim are incredibly informative discussions led by fabulous strong female leaders from our community. They provide women with tools to connect deeper to mitzvot, and empower us to answer questions, where others may not have all the information. Several women shared that they had been told that if they live alone, they need to find a man to make Havdalah for them—this isn't true! At a recent Shabbat meal, I was able to share with a mistaken guest that "women are not obligated in that specific mitzvah and not being obligated is often equated with not being allowed, but this is a misunderstanding." The Women & Mitzvot shiurim allowed me to speak with more authority by citing halachic sources when addressing this guest. Come learn so you too can be empowered, too!"

RECHOV YELADIM

COCOA CLUB

We are very excited about Cocoa Club at BDJ. It has been a blast! This past Shabbat, Arielle (our tefillah coordinator) and Hannah (the girls' counselor) did a wonderful job leading socializing time, davening, and learning with your fantastic daughters. We had 18 girls there!!! Also, we will continue to explore ways to make davening fun and interactive, as we know this is a big growing edge.

Here's the upcoming schedule: January 12th February 2nd, February 23rd

As always, we welcome your feedback. We are so happy to spend time with your daughters, and I personally love having the opportunity to pop in and bond with them! And thank you to everyone who has already signed up to sponsor the snacks!

Please also feel free to reach out to Arielle with any ideas or questions you may have: ariellegerboff@gmail.com

END OF YEAR GIVING

As 2018 comes to a close, we would like to remind you that now is a good time to pay your bill if you have a balance and to please consider making an additional donation to B'nai David-Judea. We have three convenient payment options:

1. Pay securely online on our website: www.bnaidavid.com
2. Send or drop off a check: B'nai David-Judea, 8906 W. Pico Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90035.
3. Call the office at 310-276-9269 to make a donation over the phone.

Donations to B'nai David-Judea are tax deductible to the full extent of the law. If you have any questions about your bill or making a donation, please feel free to call the office at 310-276-9269 or email our executive director Adynna Swartz at director@bnaidavid.com.

Donating Appreciated Stocks - Another option is donating appreciated stock. This could provide a significant financial benefit to you while benefiting the Shul as well. Donating appreciated stock itself rather than selling and donating the proceeds can save you any potential capital gains liabilities and still give you the full tax deduction for the appreciated amount, while allowing the Shul to also realize the full gain of its value. For any questions, please call the office or Jon Merritt at 310-552-5607.

Thank you for your generosity and support of our community!

SHABBAT SHORTS

Have you joined yet? If not, you are missing out! Here is one of our recent gems. Email bdj@bnaidavid.com to sign up!

In response to the case of the folding objects, multiple Shabbat Short readers asked a great question: If a Pack and Play, strollers, and folding chairs and tables are not considered boneh, why do most people not use umbrellas on Shabbat?

We noted that the permissibility of the above folding objects comes from the facts that they were not only designed to be folded and unfolded like the rabbinic example of the kisei teraskal (folding chair), but they also do not include any assembly or construction at all in their usage. Doesn't this also sound like how umbrellas work?!

You'd think so. But under boneh, the rabbis prohibited making an ohel arai (a temporary canopy) that protects the area beneath it. What does this mean? A halachic ohel is any overhead covering that is one tefach by one tefach (4 inches by 4 inches). Certain temporary canopies are permitted, as long as their purpose is not to protect the area beneath them (a folding table for example does create a canopy, but its primary purpose is to provide a surface to eat on). An umbrella (or parasol פָּרָסָול) however, explicitly protects the area beneath it, thereby distinguishing it from the other objects we have discussed. (Mishnah Berurah Orach Chayim 315:20).

There is a famous dispute about umbrellas, though, that reflects the complexity of their categorization. The Noda B'Yehuda (18th century Prague) first ruled that umbrellas could be considered biblically prohibited (based on the Rif). He did discuss the possibility of opening an umbrella before Shabbat for use on Shabbat, but because of maarit ayin (that it may appear a person actually opened the umbrella on Shabbat itself), he discouraged that approach.

But the Chatam Sofer (19th century Bratislava) ruled that an ohel arai is only ever rabbinically prohibited, and since an umbrella is by nature moveable (not a buildable structure like the Mishkan), it is not even considered an ohel rabbinically! The Chatam Sofer therefore concluded that he did not recommend using an umbrella on Shabbat, but that it is not prohibited.

Finally, the Chazon Ish (20th century Bnei Brak) ruled that an umbrella is prohibited both because it is considered tikkun maneh (completing an object) and because the rabbis made a takana (a ruling throughout generations) that they cannot be used.

Long story short, the fact that there are differing opinions reveals how complex the question of umbrellas is. And the majority of opinions rule that a umbrella is distinct from the other folding objects we have mentioned because of its purpose. Halacha lemaaseh: The practice in our community is not to use umbrellas on Shabbat.
