NEXT SHABBAT

Addiction Awareness Shabbaton Nov. 10-11
Addiction is a painful illness that is isolating and destructive. It is also unfortunately common and much more varied than we may realize. As we continue to promote mental health awareness as part of the BDJ Inclusion Committee's efforts, join us for a special Shabbat to learn about addiction. With Beit T'Shuvah and our co-sponsoring organizations, we will explore how we can recognize warning signs in our community and promote prevention. Together, as friends, colleagues, and loved ones, we will increase our tools for supporting each other. See flyer on back table. Register for the Shabbat Dinner by Tuesday, November 7: <https://www.bnaidavid.com/event/addition-shabbaton-shabbat-dinner.html>.

Guest Speak Yahya Mahamid

Saturday Morning, December 9th

Yahya Mahamid, is a 19-year-old Israeli-Arab Zionist and StandWithUs educator. Born in Umm Al-Fahm, an Arab city in Northern Israel. Like many vocal anti-Zionist activists, he was indoctrinated from childhood to hate Jews and deny Israel's statehood, but Yahya had regular interactions with Israelis that challenged these negative views. After realizing he had been intentionally misled, he decided to combat the negative stereotypes and demonization of Israel. Today, Yahya is a brave young voice, speaking out for the Jewish State and against hatred. This is his last speaking tour before his IDF draft this winter.
