- Teens will be in the Main Sanctuary at all other times.

YOM KIPPUR APPEAL

Yom Kippur is the culmination of another year of study, prayer & meaningful social & social-welfare activity at BDJ. It is the day for increasing our commitment to the shul that has made all of this possible & ensuring that we will be strong in the year ahead. Membership dues provide only 1/4 of our Shul's budget—this appeal raises much needed funds for our ongoing operations. We thank you in advance for your generosity & support of our BDJ community: <https://tinyurl.com/y8293dv9>

THOSE WHO FAITHFULLY ATTEND TO THE NEEDS OF THE COMMUNITY

- ◆ Thank you to the Rechov Yeladim Chair Yael Mashbaum, Director Kelila Siciliano & their team for planning the Rechov Yeladim program, and to all the counselors, parents & volunteers!
- ◆ Thank you to Sara Smith, Josh Meisel, Julie Fax & the entire teen committee for the Teen Programming.
- ◆ Thank you to Nancy Klein Dolensky for organizing the Torah carrying every Shabbat & Yom Tov.
- ◆ Thank you to Beth Tarko for organizing the page turning.
- ◆ Thank you to Alan Tarko for organizing the Ushering.
- ◆ Thank you to Robby Helperin & Gabe Wintner for heading the Ritual Committee, & to our dedicated Gabaiim Josh Kahn, Steve Lowenstein, Tzvi Wolf, Yigal Dakar & Leon Cohen.
- ◆ Thank you to our security volunteers who patrol every Shabbat, helping to keep all of us safe: Andres Terech, David Steinberg, David Waghalter, Herb Thau, Jonathan Meltzer, Jon Merritt, Larry Handman, Sue Handman, Linda Korn, Bob Lowe, Noah Blumofe, Robin Shaw, Zach Morrow & Yigal Dakar.
- ◆ Thank you to our maintenance staff—Reina, Jose, Daniel & Vilma—for preparing us for chagim!
- ◆ Thank you to all of our committee chairs and volunteers who run our amazing BDJ programming year-round!

We encourage everyone to memorialize Ari Fuld z"l, who was murdered on Sunday in a terrorist attack. He worked for & was very devoted to Standing Together, (http://www.stogether.org) which supports IDF soldiers in action. In addition, a GoFundMe page has been set up to support his widow & children: www.gofundme.com/ari-fuld. For how long will the sword devour!? (Shmuel II 2:26)

As we gather for Yom Kippur today, we feel the distress of "God's handiwork that is drowning in the sea" in North Carolina. In the coming weeks, we will turn our communal attention to the disaster relief there. To get a head start, support NECHAMA: Jewish Response to Disaster, which has established a strong track record of good work: <https://nechama.org>.

Come In, Have A Seat... but please ensure it is your assigned seat. If you don't have a seat or need to switch seats, please see an usher, who will be happy to guide you to an available seat.

Out of respect for others, if you are entering the Main Sanctuary during Rav Yosef's sermon, please wait until after the sermon before going to your seat.

Attention Parents: On Yom Kippur we ask that you please not feed your children in the Main Sanctuary.

HALACHA HOW TO: YOM KIPPUR HAVDALAH

There are two reasons given for why we recite a bracha over a flame in the ordinary, post-Shabbat havdalah. For one, we are expressing gratitude for fire on the weekly anniversary of Adam & Eve's discovery of fire at the conclusion of the very first Shabbat (Midrash). This reason doesn't pertain to havdalah following Yom Kippur. Were this the only reason given, we wouldn't recite "boray meorai ha-aysh" after Yom Kippur. The other reason states, following a 24-hour period when it is forbidden to make any use of fire, we recite the bracha to express appreciation for our being able to use it again. Yom Kippur shares the total prohibition on use of fire with Shabbat, and therefore shares this aspect of havdalah. However, the logic of this reason dictates that the bracha can only be recited over a flame that had been in existence since before the period of prohibition began, in our case, Erev Yom Kippur. Therefore, this Wednesday night, the bracha can only be recited over a yearzeit candle, or a flame taken from a candle lit from a stove pilot. The bracha over the besamim is not recited following Yom Kippur.

HALACHA HOW TO: LULAV & ETROG

To assemble the lulav, hadasim and aravot, begin by holding the lulav so that the thick green spine is facing you. The hadasim (of which you have three) go on the right side of the lulav & the aravot (of which you have two) go on the left. The hadasim should extend just a little higher than the aravot & the lulav should extend several inches higher than the hadasim.

The procedure for performing the mitzvot of lulav & etrog is as follows: We take the lulav (with the hadasim & aravot) in our right hand & the etrog – with pitum facing downward – in our left. (If we were to take the etrog right-side-up, we would at that instant be fulfilling the mitzvah before we had a chance to recite the bracha.) Then we recite the bracha "al netilat lulav" & on the first day "shehechyanu." After we've recited the brachot we turn the etrog right-side-up & wave the entire package in front of us, then to the right, then behind us, then to the left, then upward & finally downward.
