

Ally Conversations Toolkit Workshop

Based on cognitive research and best-practice communication methodology, these ACT Workshops will empower you to make the world a better place by confronting everyday racism in your family, neighborhood, and workplace.

Keynote Speakers & Workshop Leaders

Dr. David Campt

Founder of The Dialogue Company

Allison Mahaley

Principal at The Dialogue Company

Join Dr. David Campt and Allison Mahaley at Westminster Presbyterian Church to learn how compassion can transform your approach to better allyship. You will get an introduction to the R.A.C.E. method, learn the basic framework and approaches to bridging divides, and gain concrete guidance on how to respond in a variety of circumstances without devolving into combative.

Limited Seats Available!

Keynote & Workshop with Certificate

Virtual Keynote

 March 30, 2022

In-Person Keynote & Workshop

 April 21-23, 2022

 See individual events for times

 Westminster Presbyterian Church
Portland, Oregon

For More Information and to Purchase Tickets, go to: bit.ly/WestminsterACT

A big thank you to Westminster Presbyterian Church for hosting this event and a heartfelt thank you to all of the Co-Sponsoring Congregations!

Havurah Shalom
Portland's Reconstructionist Community

The Dialogue Company's
Ally Conversations Toolkit Workshop
Portland, Oregon

"When we talk about allies, what we are talking about is white people talking to other white people and inviting them into understanding that racism against white people is not a thing. The racism that exists in America was built on slavery, on the backs of black people, and it has evolved into mass incarceration. We need to understand that. Making things better for people of color is not going to make it worse for white people." - Allison Mahaley as seen on the Dr. Phil Show 2/28/2022

Join Dr. David Campt and Allison Mahaley at Westminster Presbyterian Church to learn how compassion, rooted in antiracism as a spiritual practice, can transform your approach to better allyship. Based on cognitive research and best-practice communication methodology, these ACT Workshops will empower you to make the world a better place by confronting everyday racism in your family, neighborhood, and workplace.

Armed with compassion and connection, The Dialogue Company will help you improve conversations across divides. Join The Dialogue Company and other Portland-based activists in this exploration of evidence-based approaches to creating productive dialogues around racism.

Event Overview

Virtual Keynote March 30th 7pm PT

In-Person Keynote April 21st 7pm PT @ Westminster Presbyterian

Workshop Session 1 April 22nd 9am PT; April 23rd 9am PT @ Westminster Presbyterian - Great Hall

You will learn:

- Basic framework and approaches for bridging divides
- Introduction to R.A.C.E. Method (Visit thediologuecompany.com for more information.)
- Concrete guidance on how to respond in a variety of circumstances without devolving into combativeness

This Session is for you if:

- You believe that compassion is more powerful than condemnation
- You want to engage in better dialogue
- You want to feel empowered to make the world a better place
- You want to improve your ability to be an effective ally

Workshop Session 2 April 23rd 2pm PT @ Westminster Presbyterian - Great Hall

You will learn:

- Additional opportunity to practice bridging divides and engaging in hard conversations
- Expansion of R.A.C.E. Method (Visit thediologuecompany.com for more information.)
- Additional guidance on how to respond in a variety of circumstances

This Session is for you if:

- You believe that compassion is more powerful than condemnation
- You want additional guided practice with the methods and approaches taught in Session 1
- You want additional practice engaging in better dialogue
- You want to improve your ability to be an effective ally