

Eli Lebowicz

Standup Comedy

ELI LEBOWICZ started doing stand up while attending Yeshiva University, where he won the school's Last Comic Standing contest in 2009. Since then, he has performed at Jewish events all over America such as synagogue dinners, Passover programs, and other places Jews eat. Some people think his material is a bit too Jewish, but with a name like Eli Lebowicz, he wasn't really trying to hide that.
