

MAIN LINE REFORM TEMPLE PRESENTS

A CONVERSATION WITH ISRAEL NITZAN

TUESDAY, MAY 14

7:00 PM WINE & NOSH | 7:30 PM PROGRAM

The Honorable Israel Nitzan, Deputy Consul General of the Consulate General of Israel New York, will join us at MLRT to discuss current events in Israel and the Middle East.

Come to learn and be part of the conversation.

Mr. Nitzan serves at the largest Israeli mission office in the world in New York City, also home to the United Nations. Mr. Nitzan provides diplomatic liaison services between the Government of Israel and national, state and local government officials in five states including Pennsylvania, coordinates with Jewish communities in those states, and provides interfaith outreach to non-Jewish communities.

Prior to his current appointment, Mr. Nitzan was the Director of the Foreign Ministry's United Nations Political Affairs Department where he oversaw Israeli policies and actions within the U.N. system. Mr. Nitzan was born in Netanya in 1975. He completed his B.A. in Middle East History and International Relations from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem following his service in the IDF.

This event is free and open to the public.
RSVP appreciated to Tobin Moskowitz at
