This Tree of Life Congregation
Book of Memory is but a token of the love we have for those upon whose lives our own days are built.
They live yet in the shelter of God's mercy and in the hearts of those to whom they were precious.

There are stars up above,
So far away we only see their light
Long, long after the star itself is gone.
And so it is with people that we loved –

Their memories keep shining ever brightly
Though their time with us is done.
But the stars that light up the darkest night,
These are the lights that guide us.

As we live our days, these are the ways we remember.

-Hannah Senesh

As we gather together this Yom Kippur afternoon, we remember. We remember our loved ones – parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, sons and daughters, family, and friends – as we recite the words of Job: “God has given; God has taken away. Blessed be the name of God.”

Psalm 23

God is my shepherd: I shall not want.

God maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

God leadeth me beside the still waters,

God restoreth my soul.

God guideth me in straight paths for the sake of God's name.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil,

For Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou has anointed my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I shall dwell in the house of Adonai for ever.

We remember and we ask that God may remember them
as well. “YIZKOR ELOHIM:

May God remember forever our dear ones who have gone to their eternal rest.

May they be with the One who is life eternal.

May the beauty of their lives shine for evermore,
and may our lives always bring honor to their memory.”
