The Severest Exile of All

Rabbi Sholom ben Elazar Rokeah of Belz taught that there are three types of exile of increasing severity. The first is when Jews are in exile among the nations. Though modern Israel has been reborn, too many still feel distant from it. While Israel is made vulnerable by this exile, the Jews who are distant from Eretz Yisrael suffer a weakening of their connection to our ancestors and our homeland.

The second exile is when Jews are in exile from other Jews. They choose to distance themselves from synagogue life and activities that engage and nurture other Jews. While the synagogue and community suffer, the Jews who exile themselves lose the bonds of Jewish spiritual, intellectual and cultural life.

The third and most severe exile is when a Jew is alien to him/herself. One can convince him/herself that “I don’t need anyone or anything.” Exiled from one’s people, one’s faith, and one’s community can quickly devolve into an exile from family, friends and from the very core of one’s being. Left with self-pity, indignation, self-righteousness and cynicism, a person is left - - - alone.

In September we are in the period of teshuvah, the time of repentance, the time of forgiveness, the time of renewal. Literally, teshuvah means “return.” This is a time when we take note of the distances we have created between us and the values and ideals we know are true and good. We realize that time and events have conspired to distance us from the ancestral faith, the people, the community and even loved ones. We look in the mirror and wonder, “Who have I become? Am I now defining myself by the stuff I’ve accumulated and the pretense of practiced poses and not by the core values I once championed?”

The gates of God’s compassion never close; but it is up to us to return from the exiles we have chosen. As we enter the New Year 5778, consider this beautiful meditation by David Walcott (found on page 667 in our new Yom Kippur machzor):

Love After Love
The time will come when, with elation, you will greet yourself arriving at you own door, in your own mirror,
and each will smile at the other’s welcome,
And say, sit here. Eat.
You will love again the stranger who was your self.
Give wine. Give bread. Give back your heart to itself, to the stranger who has loved you all your life, whom you ignored for another, who knows you by heart.
Take down the love letters from the bookshelf,
the photographs, the desperate notes,
peel your own image from the mirror.
Sit. Feast on your life.

Susan, Joshua, Sam, and Jakob join me in wishing you and your loved ones a sweet year filled with God’s blessings of good health, happiness and prosperity.

L’Shana Tovah teku-tay-vu ve-t’cha-tay-mu, v’ Chag Sukkot Sameiach,
Rick

You Can Build Your Own Sukkah!

It is easier (and less expensive) than ever for those interested in building their own sukkah. While there are several different and good companies which will sell you a sukkah building kit, highly recommended is The Sukkah Project because it is a company that produces very affordable kits for making a family sukkah AND it is now owned and operated in Aurora, CO! These popular kits go up in about 2 hours and will provide a real sukkah for your family and friends to enjoy throughout the Festival of Sukkot. It is a fun tradition to visit each other during the Festival, to raise the etrog, shake the lulav, and share a meal in the splendor of a sukkah. For more information, visit www.sukkot.com or call 844-478-5568 between the hours of 8am and 10pm, (except Shabbat: Friday sundown to Saturday sundown).

This is also a good time to order an etrog and lulav set. You can surf on the web for a set.

High Holy Day Alternative Services in the Abrahams Family Chapel

A recurring motif of the High Holy Days is the phrase “hineini kan, I am here.” Indeed, Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur are the ideal occasions to reflect on the nuances of these words’ physical and existential manifestations. And so we shall do, individually and communally, during the Alternative Services which will be offered on Rosh HaShanah morning (11:45 AM) and on Yom Kippur Morning (11:45 AM). While the services will be complete and authentically in keeping with our High Holy Day traditions, the more informal setting of the Abrahams Family Chapel will enable time for contemplation, as well as for gentle guidance and explanations that will enhance the worship experience for those who prefer a more intimate gathering and for those new to Judaism.

Once again, Cantor Regina Heit, Cantor Emerita of Temple Emanuel in Denver, will co-lead these services, enriching our High Holy Day worship with traditional, contemporary and folk melodies. We invite you to join us to welcome the New Year 5778 and to celebrate our sacred heritage at this time of reflection, repentance and renewal.

Shanah Tovah u’M’vorakhat!

Family Rosh HaShanah Service at WESTLANDS Park!
(Just behind the Greenwood Athletic and Tennis Club on Quebec)

1st Day of Rosh HaShanah, Thursday, Sept. 21 at 4:00pm
Followed by
TASHLICH at 5:00pm

By popular demand, this year we will once again have our Family Rosh HaShanah service in the Park. We'll be at the beautiful Westlands Park off of Quebec in Greenwood Village (just behind the Greenwood Athletic Club). After the family service, we will continue with the fun and meaningful ritual of Tashlich. This is a time-honored tradition whereby we “cast out” our sins and disappointments from the past year. This is an especially delightful event for families with children. As we symbolically rid ourselves of sins, we usher in the New Year 5778 with a new and fresh start to life. Both services are free to all. Don’t forget to bring some bread crumbs!

2nd Day Rosh HaShanah Service and Discussion!
Friday, September 22, 10:00am

Each year, hundreds of Temple Sinai members and friends attend the wonderful 2nd Day Rosh HaShanah service at Temple Sinai. It’s a warm, heimishe gathering that is spiritual, friendly and meaningful.

One of the highlights of the service is our annual discussion during which all are welcome to participate. This year the discussion will be “Achieving Shalom Bayit (A Peaceful Home): Forgiving or Forgetting. How is it possible to move forward?”

Temple Sinai Cemetery Memorial Services
Sunday, September 24

Fairmount Cemetery, 10:00am * Mount Nebo Cemetery, 11:30am * Rose Hill, 1:00pm

On the days between Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur, many observe the tradition of visiting the gravesites of deceased loved ones. Since we have members buried at several different cemeteries, Rabbi Susan Rheins will lead a memorial service at Fairmont Cemetery on Sunday, September 24 at 10:00am. Rabbi Rick Rheins will lead a memorial service at the Rose Hill Cemetery at 1:00pm. And he will also lead the memorial service at Temple Sinai’s section of Mount Nebo Cemetery at 11:30am. No reservations are required for the memorial services.

We have created memorial prayer booklets which will be available upon request for all who would like to visit a gravesite at a different cemetery or who cannot make the services. Please call the Temple office to request the booklets.

Yom Kippur Afternoon Discussion Session
2:15pm in the Abrahams Family Chapel

It is a long standing Temple Sinai tradition to offer an Adult discussion session on Yom Kippur afternoon. This is an especially meaningful time for members to share their thoughts on timely and pertinent ethical and moral issues.
HIGH HOLY DAYS HUNGER PROJECT!

PLEASE DONATE YOUR UNEXPIRED GOODS AND HELP THOSE IN NEED
For the 25th consecutive year, Temple Sinai members are supporting the International High Holy Days Hunger Project.

This year, The Weinberg Food Pantry will collect food before the first service on Yom Kippur morning and again on Oct. 2. The Food Bank of the Rockies truck will be in the parking lot before the second Yom Kippur morning service. We will distribute empty grocery sacks on Rosh HaShanah and ask that members return them—filled with non-perishable food—on Yom Kippur.

Temple Sinai is also collecting new socks, underwear and pajamas for children at SafeHouse battered women’s shelter. We also are asking for disposable diapers and wipes for the BabiesNow! Foundation, which was founded by Temple Sinai member Roberta Greengard. Bring the children’s clothing, diapers and wipes into the lobby, separate from your food donation, on Yom Kippur morning.

Make your donations one of your first mitzvot of the new year.

YOM KIPPUR
DISCUSSION ON HUMILITY
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30
2:15 - 3:15PM

On Yom Kippur, the discussion will focus on humility. How and why is it important? How does it impact our Yom Kippur worship and our lives? How are humility and self-esteem linked?

Humility is the root and beginning of repentance - Bachya ibn Pakuda (ca. 1255-1340).

Please join us for what will be a thoughtful, interesting, and wide-ranging conversation facilitated by Ken Stern and The PaRDeS Meditation Group.

PRESCHOOL NEWS
The new preschool year is here! The last few weeks have been filled with excitement for us as we welcome new friends and reconnect with old. It is a real thrill for us to once again see the hallways at the preschool filled with so many bright and cheerful faces.

Temple Sinai Preschool offers preschool for children ages 18 months - Pre-K along with a wonderful parent tot program! As our school year begins, we have a limited number of spaces open in our program so be sure to give us a call or go to sinaidenver.org/Preschool.

During our fall orientation our teachers collaborated around our outdoor learning areas. The classroom does not always have four walls and a door. Studies have shown that utilizing outdoor spaces for learning increases a young child’s concentration and motivation around learning.

The Temple Sinai Preschool Staff wish all of you a L’Shanah Tovah Tikatevu.

Sunday, November 12, 9:00-10:00am

We are offering a general Orientation and Q&A for those families with a child who will turn 13 in the next year or two. We’ll review the typical time-line for preparation and answer questions about tutoring, rehearsals, onegs, room rentals and much more. Some B’nei Mitzvah dates are still available!

It is never too late to have our children experience the life-affirming pride and joy of accomplishment by leading a service as a Bar or Bat Mitzvah. Each year around 60 students become a Bar or Bat Mitzvah at Temple Sinai. The 2018 schedule is filling up, and we’ve just started to assign the 2019 dates.

If you have a child who will turn 13 (or older) in 2018 and you have not yet reserved a B’nei Mitzvah date, please call Rabbi Rick or Rabbi Susan Rheins and they will answer all your questions and help you find a date that works for your family.

Date selection request forms are available in the Temple Sinai office and can be mailed to you. Please know that our clergy work personally with each student and his/her family to help create a memorable celebration that will bring a lifetime of blessings.

The Healing Service is for those who are struggling with their health, sadness and grief, and also for care givers who seek inspiration as they pray for the welfare of loved ones. All are welcome. If you are unable to attend the service, just send us the name(s) of the loved ones you would like mentioned during our prayers. And be sure to let them know that they are in all of our thoughts and prayers.
IN THE CONGREGATION

All programs are from 6:30-8pm, free of charge and open to the public.

October 11 – Welcome back everyone’s favorite actress, Judy Winnick, as she brings to life Alice Herz-Sommer, a musician who was vital to keeping hope alive at the Terezin Concentration Camp. Winnick’s portrayal of Herz-Sommer is sure to be another memorable performance. A reception will follow.

October 25 – What could be a more timely topic than climate change? Rabbi Zwerin and congregant Steve Tick are pleased to introduce one of the foremost climatologists in the world, Dr. Kevin Trenberth. Whether you’re a climate change believer or denier, you won’t want to miss Dr. Trenberth’s talk on climate change and How the Prospect of Water Issues Will Shape Our Future. Dr. Trenberth is a Senior Scientist in the Climate Analysis Section at the National Center for Atmospheric Research in Boulder.

November 8 - A special performance by cellist Dr. Ethan Lazarus and Carl Algermissen on piano. The duo specializes in the music of Astor Piazzolla, who revolutionized traditional tango into a new style termed nuevo tango, incorporating elements from jazz and classical music. Cantor Sheila Nesis will join them in their performance. A reception will follow. Please RSVP for the event to Lisa Thorna at (303) 759-1827.

November 29 – Polly Letofsky, author of 3mph: The Adventures of One Woman’s Walk Around the World, will lead a book club-style discussion of her book. Letofsky walked across four continents and 22 countries to raise money and awareness of breast cancer (she will make an appearance at Temple Sinai’s pink Shabbat on Friday, October 20 at 7:00pm). During her five-year journey, Letofsky learned many valuable lessons, from the best walking shoes to the countries that were the most unfriendly. More details to follow on getting a copy of her book.

December 13 – Movie Night at the Temple. A few years back, a Boston bagel maker decided to start a professional baseball team in Israel. The documentary "Holy Land Hardball" chronicles the disastrous and sometimes hilarious results.

Sinai Sunday (5778) Classes
Classes Will Begin In Early November and classes include:

Course 101
Progressive Halakhah, Part II: Jewish Responses to Difficult Issues with Rabbi Rick Rheins
The heart of modern Judaism is found in our candid approach to life’s hard questions. The process of gathering different explanations and perspectives and giving each respectful consideration helps to guide us toward wise and just actions. The accepted responses form the basis of halakhah, “Jewish law and practice.” In this year’s class, participants will review many ethical and ritual issues facing modern Jews and Judaism. Even if you did not take last year’s class, you will fit in easily. Join us and add your voice as we wrestle with society's most vexing issues! The class fee includes a copy of Volume Two of Reform Responsa for the 21st Century. This volume is edited by Rabbi Mark Washofsky, Ph.D, who will be Temple Sinai’s Scholar-in-Residence from January 5-7, 2018

Course 201
Prayerbook Hebrew I (9:15-10:15am) with Cantor Sheila Nesis

This class is highly recommended for people interested in Adult B’nei Mitzvah, but in need of basic Hebrew skills. The class will use the book The New Reading Hebrew, by Dr. C. Castberg and Lillian W. Adler, along with the workbook Practice, Drill and Review for reading Hebrew, by Lillian W. Adler. The book is included to each participant. In addition, the purchase of our Prayer Book, “Mishkan T'filah,” is highly recommended.

Course 301
Prayerbook Hebrew 2 with Rabbi Susan Miller Rheins (begins in January)
In this course, students will hone their Hebrew reading fluency and focus on the vocabulary and meaning of Shabbat evening prayers. Although this course is required for those enrolled in the Adult B’nai Mitzvah class, it is open to all who are interested in sharpening their Hebrew skills and appreciation of Jewish liturgy. 6-sessions (45 minute each), 9:00-9:45 AM. Book: Mishkan T’filah (additional cost)

Course 401

SINAI CIRCLE

Every Adult Should Have an Estate Plan. Please remember Temple Sinai.

"Hey, we're a young couple with kids. We pay our Temple dues. We've made a pledge to our building fund, Building our Future. Are we now being asked to contribute to Temple Sinai's endowment?" The answer: No. With that family picture, you (and probably your spouse) need, at least, a relatively-simple estate plan now. But you aren't being asked to contribute anything until the future. Paraphrasing what the great Irish poet, John Donne, said -- Who knows for whom the bell tolls: it tolls for thee. You owe that to your family – to plan now. Be clear-thinking about the randomness of life. Consult with an attorney conversant in estate planning. And please include Temple Sinai in your plan. The amounts or percentages of your Temple bequest might be modest now, but it can be privately modified as often and however you wish. You will be a protector of your larger family, your children and their descendants, in perpetuity. Sinai Circle is our honorary designation that will recognize you now for a gift it may not receive for many years “down the road." For more information, please contact Lorne Maltenfort at 303.759.1827 or lorne@sinaidenver.org.

DR. LESLIE ISAACS,
INTERIM EDUCATION DIRECTOR

Make it a point to meet Leslie and you will find a bubbly, vivacious, energetic and passionate educator!

Leslie’s husband, Richard’s, work transfer brought the Isaacs family to Denver. The two have been married for 35 years and have 3 children who are scattered between Philadelphia, Boston, and New York. Leslie’s older brother, Michael and his wife Rachel, have been long time Temple Sinai members.

Leslie has been an educator in special education, K-12, alternative education and an adjunct professor in addition to serving as a Religious School teacher and an Education Director during transitional times for various learning centers.

Leslie loves to cook, bake, read, exercise, play the piano, dance and go bicycle riding on her brand-new bike tooling around Denver. She loves Denver and is thrilled to be part of this community!

Leslie’s goal for Temple Sinai Religious School is to create an exciting, dynamic Jewish program that offers each student an opportunity to feel at home and comfortable in any Jewish setting throughout the world. She is currently in the process of designing, scheduling, and programming for the Religious School year along with revising the curriculum to enhance the students’ Jewish education. In addition to the fabulous returning staff members, there are new fantastic energetic teachers being added to the staff. Leslie is confident that the Religious School will be fully and well staffed for this coming school year.

On August 3rd, Leslie held a wine and cheese Religious School parent Meet and Greet and on Sunday, August 20th she oversaw a professional development in-service with all of the Religious School teachers to begin planning for the year. With Leslie’s infectious energy and enthusiasm, the Religious School is sure to have a great year!

Come meet Leslie and help welcome her to Temple Sinai. We know you will be so glad you did!
